Boston, MA - January 23, 2012 -- Nikki Leitao, Boston's most famous permanent makeup artist, knows just what your Sweetheart wants for Valentines Day: a Gift Certificate for permanent makeup. New clients get 10% off Gift Certificates for any micropigmentation service. Current clients can buy one procedure, and receive 20% off a second one. Permanent Makeup Etc. is booking these sale price services on a 1st come first serve basis from Jan 28-Feb 28th 2012.

One of the best kept celebrity secrets is permanent makeup. Boston's Nikki Leitao is a fully licensed micropigmentation artist who also offers her clients her talents as a makeup artist. New clients can take advantage of her referral special and receive $50 off any micropigmentation AKA permanent makeup procedure for every new person they refer. Every new client who bring family, friends and co-workers in for a permanent make-up session could have their eyebrows, eyeliner, lips or a beauty mark done for free. "Everyone wishes they could go to the gym, shower, beach and pool and not have their makeup come off. Each client of mine is an individual with unique needs and I do my very best to meet them" at <http://nikkileitao.com>.

Nikki Leitao is a fully licensed Micropigmentation Artist, with 10 years Body Art experience. Formally of Stingray Bodyart Boston, MA, she is currently practicing at Sacred Harp, Salem, MA. Nikki spent a year training one on one with Licensed Nurse / Aesthetician and Makeup Artist /Micro Pigmentation Artist and Reiki Master, Cindi Clark. Her continued education and certifications include First Aid and CPR, Blood Borne Pathogens, and Anatomy and Physiology. Permanent makeup is the application of pigment into the skin by the tattooing method. This art is perfect for anybody who has lost some of their hair or hair pigment, has skin sensitivities, vision and/or motor impairments, and those who want to save priceless time putting not on makeup every day.
